2. Arriving to Istanbul (IST)

- There are two major airports in Istanbul. For easier access to the meeting area, it is strongly recommended to use Istanbul New Airport (IST/LTFM) for arrivals. Istanbul Airport is located northwest of the city in the Arnavutköy district. The distance from Istanbul Airport to the center of Istanbul is 54 kilometers. By car, it takes 60 minutes to get to the meeting avenue from Istanbul airport. There are 3 main options for transportation to Sarıyer region.

a) Taxi: The approximate taxi fare from Istanbul Airport to Koc University will be around 135-165 ₺ depending on the route and traffic conditions and would take around 60 minutes. Most taxi cars accept credit cards, but it is better to ask before traveling.

b) HAVAIST-5 bus to 4. Levent: (35 ₺ /takes 90min). Can be paid by credit card, cash or Istanbul Kart

c) IETT public bus H-8 to Hacıosman: (7 ₺/ takes 100-120 min). Can only be used with an Istanbul Kart.

- Sabiha Gokcen Airport (SAW/LTFJ) is located on the Asian side of Istanbul. It takes around 90-120 minutes to get to the meeting avenue by car from SAW. Similarly, taxi might be the easiest way to get to Sarıyer region, however, it would be cost 180-200 ₺. HAVABUS can be used to Taksim or Levent, then bus/metro can be used to get to your hotel.
3. Public transportation in Istanbul:

-Istanbul has one of the best public transportation networks in the world. There are several options to reach any location for 24 hours, and Taxi is a convenient option compared to large metropolitans in the world and other cities in Turkey. However, for most transportation modes, traffic is a big problem especially in the morning and in the afternoon.

-To use public transportation other than taxi, first, you have to purchase the smart transit card of Istanbul called “Istanbul Kart”. Which is available on most large stations (airport, bus, metro) The plain card costs 6 ₺. Load at least 40-50 ₺ into your card. For all public transit modes (except taxi, HAVAIST and minibus), you’ll use the card by tapping it to the readers.

-There is a large bus, ferry and metro network in Istanbul.

4. Recommended hotels

While it is highly recommended to reside around Sarıyer region, there are only a few hotels (eg. Fuat Paşa, Hilton hotel) in the region. Also, hotels on the route of M-2 metro line are also recommended due to heavy traffic in the city center especially in the morning and in the afternoon.

PS: consider the time it would take to travel meeting venue from your hotel
Koç University is located on Sariyer-Rumeliheneri Road, it’s 10 minutes drive from Sariyer. The closest metro station is Haciosman on the M2 (green) line that passes through Taksim. You can choose from following options to reach the campus:

Taxi: It is the easiest way to get to Koç University from most locations. From Haciosman to Koç University main campus, it would cost around 60 ₺ and 20 minutes.

IETT public bus: 154 is the only bus line which is allowed to get into the campus. Would cost 5₺ and 40 minutes. (Istanbul Kart is required)

Minibus: Minibus is a small private bus. They do not offer a strict timetable however it is much more frequent than public bus, would cost around 5₺ and 1 hour from Haciosman (Only Cash). Attendants who are residing in the minibus route might use minibus to get to the campus.

Shuttle: Shuttle service from Haciosman bus stop is organized by Koç University. Timetable will be announced.
6. Information about Istanbul

Istanbul is a major city in Turkey that straddles Europe and Asia across the Bosphorus Strait. Its Old City reflects cultural influences of the many empires that once ruled here. With its ~20 million population it is the largest city in Turkey. There is a lot to discover and experience in Istanbul. However, given its size and time limitation, only major destinations might be visited in a few days. Due to the remote location of Koç University and tight schedule of ICDS meeting, it is highly recommended to plan your trips before or after the meeting days.

If you are interested in tours before or after the meeting, or other activities, we have contacted a travel agent. Setur has agreed to guide our guests before/during/after the meeting. Here is their contact information:
